

Doug Krause – the composer of “Baby’s Breath Project Soundtrack”

Doug Krause hails from Denver, Colorado and has been a professional musician and composer for over twenty years. During his career he has been a performer, recording artist, producer, studio musician, composer, songwriter, and teacher. He has been writing songs and music in popular genres for over twenty-five years. His unique songwriting and performing style comes from years spent moving between the pop/rock, blues, and country genres. This varied experience has helped him to blend these styles into a personal musical voice. Through the years, his interest in other styles of composition and arranging grew into a passion for creating all kinds of music. He is equally at home composing a string quartet as he is writing a pop song or music for a commercial.

Doug Krause has just released an independent film soundtrack CD – “Baby’s Breath Project Soundtrack”. The album contains 20 tracks from the Dorado Village Films movie Baby’s Breath. There are six brand new songs and 14 instrumental score selections from the supernatural thriller. The songs exhibit an energetic pop/rock style, and the selections from the soundtrack are a varied collection ranging from grand orchestral sounding arrangements to intimate ensembles, electronica to light jazz.

Doug Krause has appeared on several musical projects his most recent being a solo effort from 2001 entitled “Never Too Late”. He is presently working on a project as producer and performer for the Colorado group The Dirty Shoes Band, and he will be working as producer with the artist Salem on her first album due for release in 2005. He performs regularly and is involved in several live performance projects.

Doug Krause’s educational background includes a Master of Humanities from the University of Colorado at Denver and a Master of Arts in Music Composition from the University of Denver. He is currently an instructor of music and music business courses at CU-Denver and began teaching online in 1996. The distance learning environment is one that he finds exciting and challenging. In 2003, he was appointed the coordinator of online course development for the College of Arts and Media at CU-Denver and oversees the development of online courses and related programs.

Doug Krause is the proprietor of Full Measure Productions, a music production company and record label. He also operates the publishing company Denver Basin Music which promotes music of independent artists from the Rocky Mountain region.
